Synopsis: COUGARS CRUISING is an adventure comedy that follows three lively, enchanting, and passionate 70 year old women determined to unlock the key of sexual pleasure in their Golden years.

After being diagnosed with Alzheimer's Una confesses to her best friends Goldie and Beatrice that she wants her orgasm back before her mind and body deteriorate. Beatrice and Goldie vow to do whatever they can to help Una fulfill her wish.

Characters

Una (late 60's to 80's) – A traditionally conservative woman, who was in a loving (though sexually unexciting) marriage for 50 years; now that her husband is gone, and she fears Alzheimer's will be taking her mind away soon, she wants to take her sexuality into her own hands.

Goldie (late 60's to 80's) – A woman very vocal about her non-traditional and provocative viewpoints; she is much more open about sexuality than her more conservative friends, not afraid to push boundaries and say things most would not expect from an elderly woman.

Beatrice (late 60's to 80's) – A no fuss, no muss kind of woman who lives in the senior's home with a husband who appreciates her tough love; she is embarrassed about openly discussing things of sexual nature, but is committed to Una, so willing to overcome her reservations to help her friend.
